What the Service Users of Purple House Say:

'Purple House Cancer Support offered us…

A Place to Talk,

A Place to Cry,

A Place to Laugh,

A Place to Relax,

But most importantly…. A Place to Hope'

Dylan Lynch, aged 14.

'Men sometimes need to access support outside their family. Our men's group project is here to support them' Peter Guerin.

'Well the second the music starts and everyone starts to sing you absolutely forget about everything about life outside, all you think about is the music and the songs that you are singing, it is so much better than any medication' Marie Flynn – Purple House Cancer Support

Purple House Coast to Coast Cycle Challenge 2018

Introduction

The Purple House Coast to Coast Cycle is a fun cycle from the East to West Coast of Ireland.

Starting with dipping our wheels in the Irish Sea in Bray in Co. Wicklow on Saturday 14th July 2018 and finishing when our wheels meet the Atlantic Ocean in Salthill Galway on Sunday 15th July.

This is a fun event open to all levels of cyclist with the aim of helping Purple House to support families affected by Cancer in Ireland.

Why Take Part?

'Purple House kept me sane when my 4 year old daughter was going through chemo for a very rare form of cancer. This service is essential to all those touched by Cancer'

The aim of The Purple House Coast to Coast Cycle is to raise funds to help Purple House Support families affected by Cancer in Ireland.

1 in 3 people will be affected by a Cancer diagnosis in Ireland this year and there are more than 165,000 people living with and beyond cancer today in Ireland.

In 2017, over 1,000 families used the services of Purple House. This year, the demand on our services has increased by 20% and we need your support to meet this demand.

The aim of Purple House to is help rebuild the lives of families through our Cancer Support Centre, Counselling Service, Hospital Transport service, Support Programmes & Camps for Children & a range of Survivorship Programmes & practical support services.

Fundraising & Sponsorship

'When I had my cancer diagnosis & treatment, Purple House was my calm in the storm, my place I could go and be looked after where people understood the road I was on & supported me throughout'

By taking part in the Purple House Coast to Coast Cycle 2018, you can help us to make a real difference to the lives of families affected by Cancer.

To ensure that all funds raised go directly to families affected by Cancer, we would appreciate it if all person costs and accommodation costs are paid directly by each participant outside of any fundraising & sponsorship raised.

We will support you in reaching your fundraising goal and you can also set up an online fundraising page at https://www.idonate.ie/event/1847_purple-house-coast-to-coast-bray-to-galway-cycle-2018.html
